Alex's Experience

With a background in Law and Pharmaceutical Science, Alex has over 4 years of experience in applying for the Australian R&D Tax Incentive, Advance and Overseas Findings, as well as AusIndustry and ATO reviews.

Alex specialises in assessing eligibility requirements, advising on corporate structuring, simplifying complex reporting and claims processes, and reviewing R&D expenditures to ensure compliance with national and international tax laws. "My goal is to help clients mitigate risk and maintain the highest level of compliance. I take pride in my ability to help clients secure the maximum possible benefits from these programs, while minimizing their exposure to risk".

As an experienced R&D Tax Senior Consultant, Alex helps businesses of all sizes unlock the full potential of their innovation investment.
